The Introduction of Asian Sexuality Education Conference

In 2001, the first conference was held in Beijing. The resounding success of the event not only highlighted the importance of sexuality education in the Asian region but also established a regularly held international exchange platform. It also provides a valuable opportunity for scholars, educators, and practitioners to engage in cross-cultural dialogue.

The Asian Sexuality Education Conference brings together experts and practitioners from various countries and regions, including China, Taiwan, Japan, Hong Kong, the Philippines, and Malaysia. The conference focuses on addressing regional challenges and global trends in sexuality education, aiming to enhance academic collaboration, promote best practices, and improve public awareness of sexuality education.
